- 3.4 The Subscriber agrees to indemnify and save the ASC and the CSA Related Parties (as defined below) harmless against any and all losses, claims, damages, actions, causes of action or costs and expenses, that any such person may incur, suffer, sustain, or be put to, by reason of an act or omission of the Subscriber, its Authorized Users, its affiliates, its principals or agents acting on Subscriber's behalf, which results from Subscriber's material breach of this agreement, or Subscriber's gross negligence or wilful misconduct in its use of SEDAR.

The Subscriber acknowledges that each Electronic Filer is responsible for ensuring that an Electronic Filing transmitted by it directly or by a Filing Agent on its behalf or its use of the SEDAR Filing Services directly or through a Filing Agent does not and is not in breach of any laws, regulations or conventions, including, but not limited to, those relating to data privacy (including ensuring that all appropriate consents are in place in order to disclose personal information contained in the Electronic Filings), communication and exportation of technical or personal data and that each Electronic Filing is free of viruses, worms, trojan horses or other items of a destructive nature. - 4.2 The Subscriber is solely responsible for the accuracy of such Electronic Banking Information and user IDs requested by Subscriber and shall provide reasonable notice of any changes.
- 4.3 The Subscriber is solely responsible for establishing and maintaining any account and agreements with its designated financial institution or other supplier of electronic banking facilities (collectively the "FI"), including without limitation, maintaining current Electronic Banking Information for pre-authorized recipients of Payments from such account, for the purposes of making any Payment and for all service charges relating to the account or other facility used, including those charges for its processing of electronic payment instructions.

4.4 The Subscriber acknowledges that Payment Authorizations are transmitted using the SEDAR Filer Software and that the Subscriber shall be, for all purposes, the EDI payment originator with respect to any Payment. All Payment Authorizations become irrevocable once the pay command for the transmission of the Electronic Filing or other use of the SEDAR Filing Services in respect thereof is entered, unless the Payment Authorization cannot be acted upon, in which case the SEDAR system will record the unsuccessful Payment Authorization. The Subscriber is responsible for verifying that its Payment Authorizations are successful.

4.5 The Subscriber is solely responsible for the actions of the Principal Contact, employees, agents and contractors authorized by it and under its control, including without limitation, individual(s) that, from time to time: (a) receive assigned identification numbers and passwords; (b) distribute identification numbers and passwords to Authorized Users; (c) provide Electronic Banking Information; (d) make any Payment Authorization; and (e) advise of changes to any of the foregoing. The ASC and the other members of the CSA shall not be responsible, directly or indirectly, for any inaccuracies, errors or omissions in the Electronic Banking Information or authorities of Authorized Users instructed by the Subscriber or for Payment errors or failed Payments resulting therefrom.

4.6 The Subscriber is solely responsible for keeping its Electronic Banking Information, account balances and records up to date, for reviewing payment confirmation screens before transmitting any Payment Authorization and for verifying that the amount of any Payment for fees and charges is correct.

5.0 Mutual Acknowledgements

5.1 Access to and use of the SEDAR Filing Services is restricted to Authorized Users of the Subscriber only. The ASC will establish a Subscriber's account and Authorized User identification numbers and passwords and may establish a personal identification number ("PIN") unique to the Subscriber, each of which will be given to the Subscriber's Principal Contact. Subscriber is responsible for changing initial passwords upon gaining access to the SEDAR Filing Services and at any other times necessary for security purposes and for notifying the ASC in writing as soon as possible if a breach of security is suspected or if the integrity of the PIN is at risk. The ASC reserves the right to decline to assign a new PIN if the signature of the Principal Contact cannot be verified using a specimen signature on file. The Subscriber's Documents in Electronic Format which will be or have been transmitted as part of the SEDAR Filing Services will be handled by the ASC in accordance with its established security procedures, the effectiveness of these procedures being dependent upon Subscriber's implementation of those aspects of the procedures which are under Subscriber's control.

5.2 The Subscriber acknowledges that the ASC, for the purposes of supplying the SEDAR Filing Services, is not an agent of the Subscriber, the CSA, the Market Centre(s) or any other party.

5.3 The SEDAR Filer Software, SEDAR user guides, SEDAR installation guides, instructions and system information, which are made available by the ASC are, as between the ASC and the Subscriber, the exclusive property of the ASC, except for pre-existing works and/or third party software forming part thereof and used in connection with the SEDAR Filing Services, the latter being the proprietary material of third party suppliers. No title to any property or goods is being purchased or transferred under this agreement. The Subscriber shall not take any steps, directly or indirectly, to challenge the proprietary rights of the ASC and its suppliers in the SEDAR Filer Software.

- 5.4 Access to and use of the SEDAR Filing Services is subject to this agreement and the SEDAR Filer Software licenses granted to the Subscriber.
- 5.5 SEDAR is a registered trade-mark of the CSA. The Subscriber acknowledges that the supply of the SEDAR Filing Services set out in this agreement does not include the grant of any right, title, interest or license to use the SEDAR trade-mark for any purpose whatsoever. Any such use by Subscriber is strictly prohibited.
- 5.6 Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that it does not and will not, by virtue of this agreement, acquire any proprietary interest in the Database, or any portion thereof, which Database includes Documents filed by an Electronic Filer; however subject to the foregoing, nothing herein shall restrict any other rights an Electronic Filer may have to use, independent of the SEDAR system, any Document which was electronically filed by it using the SEDAR Filing Services. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that it is authorized: (a) to view, download and print Documents retrieved from the Database and use Documents and Content for its own personal and non-commercial use only; and (b) to provide limited extracts and/or unaltered copies of Documents retrieved from the Database or Content, to bona fide clients provided that: (i) Subscriber is reasonably satisfied that any such bona fide client will use the Documents and/or Content for its own personal and non-commercial purposes only or Subscriber uses contractual or other means to ensure that any such bona fide client complies with the restrictions on use of the Documents and the Content, set out in this agreement; and (ii) where a Document filed in (XBRL) format is provided or forwarded to third parties, including bona fide clients, Subscriber informs such recipients that such Document has been filed pursuant to a voluntary filing program established by the CSA, that it is not a substitute for the corresponding version of such Document filed in PDF format, and that it may not include all of the information contained in the corresponding PDF version of such Document; and (iii) Subscriber retains any and all copyright and other proprietary notices. A “bona fide client” is a client of Subscriber who has retained Subscriber principally for the purpose of receiving goods or services from the Subscriber, other than the Documents or the Content, or other similar information, such that providing the Documents or the Content, or other similar information is only incidental to the primary business relationship between the Subscriber and such client. Except as otherwise set out in this agreement, Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that unless the Subscriber has received the prior written permission of the ASC: (a) Subscriber will not, directly or indirectly, sell, assign, distribute, provide access to, transmit, exploit, copy, modify, publish, republish, reproduce, repackage, retransmit, resell, recompile, decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer or otherwise disseminate, the Database, or any portion thereof, SEDAR, the Documents, the Content, or any derivative works from the Documents, or any portion thereof, in any medium or in any manner whatsoever; and (b) Subscriber will not use the Database or any or all of the Documents or the Content to construct a database of any kind, nor store the Database, the Documents or the Content (in whole or in part) in databases for access by Subscriber or any third party, nor distribute any database services containing all or part of the Database, the Documents or the Content. The ASC shall have the right, from time to time, to impose changes, restrictions or conditions in respect of the use of the Database by the Subscriber, any group of subscribers or any particular client of a Subscriber, including withdrawing permission to use the Database and Subscriber agrees to promptly comply with all such changes, restrictions and conditions.

5.7 Unless specifically granted, nothing herein shall be construed as conferring to Subscriber any right under any copyright of the ASC and/or the other members of the CSA or third parties who own copyright in the Content. With the exception of the public Documents, all right, title and interest in the compilations of Documents, the Database, associated market data and information and databases, including without limitation, SEDAR design, text and graphics, are owned by the ASC and/or the other members of the CSA or their respective licensors and are protected by Canadian and international copyright laws. The Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that copyright subsists in SEDAR, including in the selection, arrangement and assembly of the public Documents and Content, and that such copyright is owned by the ASC and/or the other members of the CSA or their respective suppliers. Any rights not expressly granted in this agreement are reserved.

5.8 In furtherance of the objective of enhancing investor awareness of the business and affairs of public companies and investment funds and promoting confidence in the transparent operation of capital markets in Canada, Subscriber acknowledges on its own behalf, and if Subscriber is a Filing Agent, on behalf of the corresponding Electronic Filer, that the ASC and its licensees may reproduce and distribute Content, in whole or in part, and that they may license the use, reproduction and distribution of Content, in whole or in part, to third parties, whether on a commercial or non-commercial basis, including any Content that has been, or will be, filed or submitted by Subscriber on its own behalf, or on behalf of an Electronic Filer, through SEDAR.

5.9 The Subscriber agrees that misappropriation or unauthorized use of the Database or the Content by the Subscriber or its breach of this agreement will cause the ASC serious damage for which money damages may not constitute sufficient remedy and that in such instances the ASC and the other members of the CSA may seek and obtain injunctive relief, in addition to any other remedies available to them.

6.0 Limitations & Warranties

6.1 The Subscriber accepts sole responsibility for its access to and use of the SEDAR Filing Services. The instructions given by a Subscriber to effect an Electronic Filing or any Payment Authorizations and/or otherwise use the SEDAR Filing Services constitute the representation and warranty of the Subscriber that Subscriber has full power, right and authority to effect the same in accordance with Subscriber's instructions and Subscriber is deemed to have provided its permission to the collection, use and disclosure of information contained therein for the purposes set out in the National Instrument and for other disclosures to the public in the manner authorized by the CSA, including without limitation, on www.sedar.com, whether Subscriber is acting on its own behalf or as a Filing Agent. When retrieving or making use of any information contained in the Database, the Subscriber shall comply with all applicable laws, including, without limitation, Canadian privacy laws, and the Subscriber shall apply professional judgment in making use of such information, including, without limitation, the use or accuracy of any information, as the basis for any conclusions. Furthermore, Documents filed in (XBRL) format have been filed pursuant to a voluntary filing program established by the CSA and are not a substitute for the corresponding version of such Documents filed in PDF format.

Documents filed in XBRL format may not include all of the information contained in the PDF version of the corresponding Document; Subscriber should refer to the Document in PDF format to view the complete version filed with the Securities Regulatory Authority. Due to the nature of XBRL format documents, Subscriber may be required to retrieve several separate data files in order to compile a complete document in XBRL format.

6.2 The ASC shall at all times endeavour to professionally and efficiently supply the SEDAR Filing Services. However, other than as expressed herein, neither the ASC, the other members of the CSA, their respective service providers, nor their respective directors, officers, members, employees or agents (collectively, the CSA Related Parties”) make any representation or warranty, or condition expressed or implied, statutory or otherwise, as to the use of the SEDAR Filing Services or SEDAR Filer Software, including without limitation, any representations or warranties as to quality, accuracy of contents, completeness, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose of any use of the SEDAR Filing Services or SEDAR Filer Software or that any specialized requirements of the Subscriber will be met. Except as stated in this agreement, all implied warranties or conditions of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose are hereby disclaimed and excluded from this agreement.

6.3 Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither the ASC, nor the CSA Related Parties make any representations or warranties: that the use of the SEDAR Filing Services or SEDAR Filer Software will be uninterrupted, free from errors or offered without delays, due to circumstances within or beyond their reasonable control.

6.4 Neither the ASC, nor the CSA Related Parties will be liable for any loss or damage caused by any delay in the access to the SEDAR Filing Services or for any delay or failure in any transmission system or for any alteration in the content or format of any information and/or documentation transmitted using the SEDAR Filing Services or for any delay as the result of the failure or malfunction in any hardware or software.

6.5 If liable, notwithstanding the express exclusions and limitations set out in this agreement, under this agreement or any statute or rule of law, any and all liability of the ASC and the CSA Related Parties is limited to the payment to Subscriber for actual and direct damages of Subscriber to a maximum amount equal to the SEDAR System Fees paid by the Subscriber on its own behalf or on behalf of a particular Electronic Filer for the specific affected or failed filing to a Securities Regulatory Authority or other specific or failed use of a SEDAR Filing Service, or $10,000 (CDN), whichever is less, provided that Subscriber is not in breach of this agreement, the National Instrument or, if applicable, the MC Filing Requirements. No party shall be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the other or caused by a failure to perform any duty imposed by this agreement where such failure is caused by an event, omission or condition not reasonably within the control of the defaulting party. Except as contemplated above in this section 6.5, neither the ASC, nor any CSA Related Party shall be liable for (a) direct, indirect, general, special, incidental or consequential damages, lost profits, lost savings or any other damages arising out of this agreement, the access or use, or inability to access or use, the SEDAR Filing Services, the SEDAR Filer Software, Documents that may be made available through the SEDAR Filing Services, the use, accuracy or completeness of any information, Document or the Database, or any information or reliance on information contained in a Document filed in XBRL format or any deviation of such information from information contained in the corresponding version of that Document filed in XBRL format; and (b) damages of third parties claimed against Subscriber, even if the ASC has been advised of the possibility of any such damages. The foregoing limitations of liability apply regardless of the basis on which Subscriber is entitled to claim, including but not limited to breach of contract, even if in the nature of a breach of a condition or a fundamental term or a fundamental breach, or tort, including but not limited to negligence or misrepresentation. No action, regardless of form, arising out of this agreement may be brought by either party against the other more than two years after the cause of action arises.

7.0 Term

- 7.1 The term of this agreement shall commence on the earliest of the following: (a) the date Subscriber or any of its Authorized Users use any user IDs assigned by the ASC to Subscriber; and (b) the date the ASC receives a signed copy of this agreement, and shall continue, subject to termination, as set out in this agreement.

8.0 Confidentiality and Privacy

- 8.1 The parties undertake and agree to respect the confidential nature of all confidential and proprietary information and Documents provided by the other party, related directly or indirectly, to the SEDAR Filing Services, the SEDAR Filer Software, its documentation, initial installation or implementation in the Subscriber's computer(s), server(s), network(s), and, consequently, never to disclose any part thereof to anyone, with the exception of their directors, officers, employees, agents, legal advisors or sub-contractors who need to know or use the same for the purpose of performing obligations or rights under this agreement, and the Securities Regulatory Authorities and the Market Centres. Such information may be disclosed to the extent required by law provided that the party seeking to make such disclosure informs the other party and uses reasonable efforts to obtain a confidentiality undertaking from the recipient. For greater certainty, nothing herein shall be interpreted as prohibiting the Subscriber, the ASC or the other members of the CSA from publicly disclosing Documents by means of the SEDAR Filing Services in a manner consistent with the National Instrument or as otherwise required by applicable Securities Legislation.
- 8.2 The following information and documents are expressly excluded from this confidentiality commitment:
- (a) any information or document which is or shall become publicly available, except as a result of a default under this agreement; or
 - (b) any information or document which one of the parties shall legally obtain from a third party; or
 - (c) any information or document which the receiving party had obtained without an obligation of confidence prior to disclosure thereof by the disclosing party; or
 - (d) any information or document which one of the parties, its directors, officers, employees or agents develops independently and without using any part of the confidential information or documents received from the other party or without contravening this agreement.
- 8.3 If Subscriber has indicated on SEDAR Form 1 that it will be a Filing Agent, the ASC may include Subscriber's name and basic contact information in a list of the ASC subscribers or
